

ROYAL HAWAIIAN ANNOUNCES NEW TENANTS

Honolulu — Royal Hawaiian Shopping Center, which is owned and operated by Kamehameha Schools, announced the first of many new luxury/lifestyle retailers and restaurants that will open in late 2006 after renovations are completed there. The lineup of new tenants coming to Waikiki include Tourneau, Kate Spade, Furla, ABC Stores, Pacific Harley-Davidson and restaurant Senor Frog's.